

I am writing in opposition to the National Association of Broadcasters petition to prevent XM and Sirius from providing localized traffic information. The FCC stands for more voices and choices. The traffic service available over satellite radio is not available on the local level.

Moreover, providing this service does not harm local radio's monopoly or threaten the industry. The listeners who have satellite radio will choose to listen to local radio just as they choose to listen to any channel or cd in their cars.